Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the projudices which I, in common with a groat many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago. I commenced using your article to test if for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being center demonstration. I write you this letter, which you may show to my such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing exhibitinent every day.
